

Statement on the Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking

PURPOSE

To set out the Company Policy on Modern Day Slavery and Human Trafficking in the workplace and ensure the communication of this policy to all employees within the company.

POLICY

1. Euro Suisse has a zero-tolerance approach to modern slavery and is committed to act ethically and to comply with all laws and regulations which are relevant to the business in all countries where we operate. We expect our suppliers to hold their suppliers to the same high standard.

We are satisfied from our own due diligence there is no evidence of any act of modern-day slavery or human trafficking within our organisation.

As part of the Company's due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking the supplier approval procedure incorporates the right to carry out a review of the controls undertaken by the supplier.

1.2 The company will not knowingly support or deal with any business involved in slavery or human trafficking.

1.4 The Company will undertake responsibility for implementing this Policy Statement and its objectives.

1.5 This Policy Statement will be reviewed and published annually.
